Safety Information

Hearing Safety

CAUTION! This product is designed to amplify sounds and creates high sound pressure, which could potentially cause hearing damage if used improperly. To protect your hearing and the hearing of others:

- Make sure the volume is turned down before putting on the earphone or headphone before adjusting the volume to a comfortable level.
- Do not listen to at high volume levels for long periods, as it could be a hearing damage risk.
- Set the volume level at the minimum setting that you need to hear.
- Do not allow children or other unauthorized persons to have access to this product.

Battery Safety & Disposal

CAUTION! To reduce the risk of fire or burns, do not attempt to open, disassemble, or service the battery pack. Do not crush, puncture, short contacts or dispose of in fire or water. Do not incinerate or expose to temperatures above 140°F (60°C). Replace only with battery pack designated for this product: a rechargeable Lithium-polymer battery.

Like all lithium batteries, the lithium batteries used in the IR RX20 have a limited number of charge/discharge cycles. Lithium batteries may experience swelling if used beyond their expected lifecycle (2 years). If you notice swelling of the battery, please discontinue use and have the battery replaced. We recommend battery replacement after 2 years of use. Recycle or dispose of old batteries properly.

Pacemaker Safety

CAUTION! Before using this product with a pacemaker or other medical device, consult your physician or the manufacturer of your pacemaker or other medical device.

If you have a pacemaker or other medical device, make sure that you are using this product in accordance with safety guidelines established by your physician or the pacemaker manufacturer.

Operating Instructions

Front and Back View of the IR RX20

Before you begin using the RX20 receiver, make sure the IR transmitter being used is transmitting on 2.3 MHz or 2.8 MHz frequencies. Make sure the audio source is on, and the receiver battery is fully charged.

Use the 3-position selection switch to choose from 2.3 MHz, 2.8 MHz, or stereo mode. Rotate the Volume Control to adjust the volume to a comfortable listening level.

To use with a neckloop, connect the neckloop into the headphone jack.

A dual detector infrared detector is located on the front of the receiver. Do not cover it up or you will lose reception. Make sure the power switch is lying near your chest when you put the receiver on.

The IR RX20 Receiver (with internal LiPo battery) should be charged when not in use.
